MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

THROUGH : Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : 1965 Fund-Raising Campaigns for Red Cross,
National Health Agencies and Federal Service
Joint Crusade Agencies

1. Memoranda addressed to the four Deputy Directors concerning the 1965 campaigns to raise funds for health and charitable organizations are attached for your signature.

2. Fund-raising campaigns for the support of the Red Cross, the National Health Agencies and the four international agencies of the Federal Service Joint Crusade will be conducted this spring in Federal installations which did not participate in the Combined Federal Campaign last fall.

3. We have received copies of messages to the Heads of Executive Departments and Agencies signed by President Johnson who urges Federal employees to support these national and international agencies. In replies to letters from Secretary McNamara and Secretary Freeman, Chairmen of the National Health Agencies and the Joint Crusade Campaigns, respectively, the Director stated we would urge our employees [redacted] to support campaigns conducted [redacted] to help these health and welfare organizations.

4. The attached memoranda request the Deputy Directors to advise the heads [redacted] in areas where these campaigns will be conducted that the Director wishes to encourage personnel to support these worthwhile organizations. It is suggested that you sign the attached memoranda to the four Deputy Directors.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
Deputy Director for Plans
Deputy Director for Support
Deputy Director for Science and Technology

SUBJECT : 1965 Fund-Raising Campaigns for Red Cross, the National Health Agencies, and the Federal Service Joint Crusade Agencies

1. The 1965 fund-raising campaigns for the support of the Red Cross, the National Health Agencies, and the four international agencies of the Federal Service Joint Crusade will be conducted this spring in all Federal installations except those which participated in the experimental 1965 Combined Federal Campaign. The 1965 CFC was conducted last fall in the following areas: the National Capital Area; Dover, New Jersey; Macon, Georgia; San Antonio, Texas; Chicago, Illinois; and Bremerton, Washington.

2. President Johnson has authorized the conduct of the 1965 campaigns for the support of these national and international agencies and has asked Heads of Executive Departments and Agencies to urge their personnel to make generous contributions to help these organizations carry on their work.
